Representative Alan Grayson, Committee to Elect Alan Grayson, and Dustin Andersen, Treasurer PO Box 533616 Orlando, FL 32853-3616

Respondents,

COMPLAINT

Complainant files this complaint under 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1) against Representative Alan Grayson, Committee to Elect Alan Grayson and Dustin Andersen, Treasurer, in his official capacity, for an apparent violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and Federal Election Commission regulations, as described below. Recent news reports, statements made by Mr. Grayson and his staff, and his campaign's own reports filed with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") indicate that Mr. Grayson may have fraudulently been using one of his outside hedge fund entities to illegally pay a member of his campaign staff for political work off the books. One of the Grayson campaign's senior staff members had his campaign salary cut by roughly $1,000 around the same time he has admitted being paid the exact same amount by one of Mr. Grayson's hedge fund entities, even though Mr. Grayson has said that the hedge fund was engaged in no activity at the time. The FEC should immediately open a full investigation of this matter to get to the bottom of whether Mr. Grayson is creating essentially "no-show" jobs at investment entities he controls in order to supplement his campaign in violation of the Act.

Representative Grayson is a current Member of the U.S. House of Representatives, serving Florida's Ninth Congressional District, as well as a candidate for U.S. Senate in Florida. Mr. Grayson was first elected to Congress in 2008 to represent Florida's Eighth Congressional District but lost his bid for re-election in 2010. Representative Grayson was then re-elected in 2012 and again in 2014 to serve Florida's Ninth Congressional District. In 2011, Mr. Grayson formed five companies as part of an overall network of outside hedge fund operations -- the Grayson Fund, LP, the Grayson Master Fund (Cayman), LP, the Grayson Fund (Cayman) Ltd., the Grayson Fund General Partner, LLC and the Grayson Fund Management Company, LLC (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "the Hedge Fund").

Recent news articles as well as statements made by Representative Grayson and his staff to the Office of Congressional Ethics ("OCE") raise serious concerns that Representative Grayson and the Committee to Elect Alan Grayson ("the Committee") improperly used the Hedge Fund to secretly underwrite campaign expenses in violation of the Act.

As reported by the New York Times, the finance director for Mr. Grayson's 2014

Congressional campaign and 2016 Senate campaign, David Keith, was apparently paid $1,000 a month by the Hedge Fund from early 2014 to late 2015, a time period in which he was Representative Grayson recently changed the name of the Grayson Fund, LP, the Grayson Fund Management Company, LLC and the Grayson Fund General Partner, LLC to replace "Grayson" with "Sibylline." For purposes of consistency, the entities are referred to herein by their original names.

coleman, who is Representative Grayson's "Congressional Office Manager and Business Director," the Grayson Fund Management Company, LLC ("the Management Company") was ostensibly paying Mr. Keith an amount equivalent to eight hours of Hedge Fund work per week and only for one task: assisting the Hedge Fund with finding new investors. When asked by OCE to explain what responsibilities Mr. Keith held as part of his employment with the Hedge Fund, Representative Grayson listed only one duty, responding that "he's involved in situations where there might be somebody who's interested in investing in the fund."

However, according to Mr. Grayson and his office, the Hedge Fund has been inactive since Mr. Grayson returned to Congress, namely January of 2013 until present day, and neither Mr. Grayson nor anyone acting on his behalf solicited investors for the Hedge Fund during that time. Representative Grayson told OCE that engagement with individuals interested in investing in the Hedge Fund, which is what the Hedge Fund supposedly paid Mr. Keith to do, "hasn't happened recently."

Furthermore, according to Representative Grayson, interested investors would first reach out to either Mr. Grayson or Ms. Coleman, and Mr. Keith would then get the investor's information from Ms. Coleman in order to follow up. Yet, when OCE asked Ms. Coleman to explain Mr. Keith's responsibilities with the Hedge Fund, she replied "I don't know, you'd have to ask Alan. I'm not really sure what he does." As Ms. Coleman was unaware of Mr. Keith doing any work for the Hedge Fund, and Mr. Keith could not do his job without working directly with her, it appears that he did not actually perform any work for the Hedge Fund.

The clear conclusion is that Mr. Keith did not actually perform eight hours of work a week for the Hedge Fund. By Representative Grayson's own account, during the entire period the Hedge Fund paid Mr. Keith, the Hedge Fund remained inactive and did not solicit a single new investor. Rather, it appears that the Hedge Fund paid Mr. Keith the $1,000 per month for the work he performed as the finance director of the Committee.

Tellingly, in September of 2014, FEC reports filed by the Committee show that the salary paid by the Committee to Mr. Keith appears to have dropped by $1,000 per month -- the exact amount Mr. Keith reportedly received per month from the Hedge Fund's Management Company. This symmetry, along with the inactive state of the Hedge Fund, suggests that the Hedge Fund payment directly replaced the $1,000 in Committee funds to compensate Mr. Keith for his campaign work.

If, as these facts suggest, the Hedge Fund did pay Mr. Keith for over a year for Committee work, the Respondents committed a number of serious violations of campaign finance law.

Under the Act, if an entity compensates an individual for services that are rendered to a political committee, that compensation results in a contribution from the entity to the political committee. As such, the available information suggests that each $1,000 payment that was in fact provided to Mr. Keith for Committee work resulted in the Management Fund making, and the Committee accepting, a contribution from the Management Fund. If, as the facts suggest, the company made $1,000 disbursements on a monthly basis for over a year to compensate Mr. Keith for Committee work, then the Committee accepted excessive contributions from the Management Company in violation of the $2,700 per election limit imposed by the Act and then hid it by not publicly disclosing the salary payments on its regular reports as required by the Act. This lack of disclosure coupled with the complex nature of the Hedge Fund structure raises questions regarding the underlying source of the funds paid to Mr. Keith. The Commission should investigate to determine if these funds came from a prohibited source, such as a corporation or a foreign national.

Pursuant to the above, Representative Grayson and the Committee to Elect Alan Grayson appear to have engaged in an off the record scheme for over a year to use hedge fund money to illegally subsidize campaign staff expenses. I therefore respectfully request that the Commission immediately investigate this matter, enjoin Respondents from further violations of the Act and impose a fine of the maximum amount permitted by law.

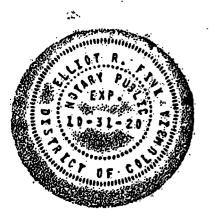

The relevant salary disbursements to Mr. Keith demonstrating this change are available in Exhibit A. Not included in the Exhibit is an initial salary payment made to Mr. Keith on 4/2/2014 and the sporadic salary payments that were made to Mr. Keith between 1/29/2015 and 12/2/2015.

Interview of Rep. Grayson Congressional Office Manager and Business Director October 16, 2015

Helen Eisner: This is October 16, 2015, speaking is Helen Eisner from the Office of Congressional Ethics with my colleague Paul Solis. We are joined today by Rep. Grayson Congressional Office Manager and Business Director (the "Witness"), her counsel Ildefonso Mas and Brett Kappel. This is OCE Review 15-6530. We've given the Witness a copy of the False Statements Act and she has signed the acknowledgement form. With that we'll go ahead and get started.

Just some background questions, what is your current job?

Witness: For Congressman Grayson?

Helen Eisner: Where do you currently work? If there are multiple positions just a summary of your work at this current period of time.

Witness: I work at the House of Representatives for Congressman Grayson.

Helen Eisner: What is your position there?

Witness: Scheduler, office manager.

Helen Eisner: How long have you held that position?

Witness: Since 2012.

Helen Eisner: Would that have been?

Witness: The 113th Congress.

Helen Eisner: Besides that position what other positions do you currently hold?

Witness: I work part time at the Grayson Management Fund.

Helen Eisner: What is your position there?

Witness: I pay bills, do anything that needs to be done office management type things.

Helen Eisner: We're going to go into some details about the specific entities, the background so that I can know what to refer to you as, Office Manager is accurate?

Witness: Part-time Office Manager probably would be the best.

Helen Eisner: Do you hold any other positions currently?

Paul Solis: 2008 through the present. Remember when we exchanged copies of this document or the chart for this document?

Witness: Right. The director on the Cayman Islands, which isn't even around anymore should be on this list.

Helen Eisner: Okay.

Witness: I think that should be Kubli and Associates.

Brett Kappel: In 2009?

Witness: Yeah, because I worked for a bit but two years. I'll have to check. I have to check my payroll.

Helen Eisner: Okay, thanks for the clarification.

Let's go into something, continue to go into some of the specific entities. You said that you received your paychecks from the Grayson Management Fund?

Witness: Yes.

Helen Eisner: I realize that some of these funds have changed their names, so excuse me if we go back and forth between different names. Generally, I think we'll be referring to this entity as the Grayson Management Fund.

Witness: Okay.

Helen Eisner: What is that entity?

Witness: The Grayson Management Fund ...

Brett Kappel: Management Company.

Helen Eisner: Sorry, yes, the Management Company.

Witness: The Grayson Management Company is the entity that I guess pays all the bills and for all the other Grayson Funds.

Helen Eisner: Does it do anything else besides paying the bills?

Witness: It's administration, office expenses.

Helen Eisner: Who are its employees?

Witness: Me, David Keith.

Helen Eisner: Who is David Keith?

Witness: He works for Alan, I don't know what his specific role is. He helps me out because I think he lives in Florida so the office is down there. He's part-time, one day a week.

Helen Eisner: Does he work exclusively for the management company or does he work for any other, you said he works for Alan?

Witness: I don't know if he's paid by anyone else.

Helen Eisner: Does he do work for anyone else? Even if he doesn't get paid by them?

Witness: He does work with Alan, I don't ... I think he gets paid by the committee.

Paul Solis: His campaign committee?

Witness: Yes, I think the campaign pays him. But I don't have anything to do with that payroll so I don't ...

Helen Eisner: With the committee's payroll?

Witness: Yes.

Helen Eisner: Does he receive paychecks from the management fund?

Witness: Yes, for eight hours a week.

Helen Eisner: You talked a little bit about your responsibilities, what are his responsibilities for the fund? Sorry, for the management company and the fund in general?

Witness: I don't know, you'd have to ask Alan. I'm not really sure what he does.

Helen Eisner: Okay. Did you play ... I know you talked about emails with lawyers, emails with brokerage, what responsibilities do you have for assets, holdings, stocks, as you said earlier, related to the fund?

Witness: What do you mean? I'm sorry.

Helen Eisner: Did you play any role in investment decisions, holdings.

Witness: No.

Helen Eisner: Did you have access to those documents?

Witness: To the investment documents?

Helen Eisner: Investment documents, financial statements ...

Witness: His tax stuff, yes.

Interview of Representative Grayson October 21, 2015

Helen Eisner: Okay, speaking is Helen Eisner from the office of Congressional Ethics joined by my colleague Paul Solis. This is October 21, 2015. We're here with Representative Alan Grayson, his counsel Brett Kappel, and Ildefonso Mas. We gave Representative Grayson a copy of the False Statements Act and he has signed an acknowledgment form. We have let him know that we will be recording the interview. I think we will go ahead and get started.

I know you're familiar with Financial Disclosure forms that you're required to file as a member of congress. Who prepares your financial disclosure statements?

Rep. Grayson: I do.

Helen Eisner: Your periodic transaction reports?

Rep. Grayson: Me.

Helen Eisner: Okay, does anyone help you in that process?

Rep. Grayson: Not really, no.

Helen Eisner: When you say, "Not really," is there anyone else who-

Rep. Grayson: I hand it off to somebody to file it.

Helen Eisner: Okay, and who do you hand it off to?

Rep. Grayson: It varies. Generally it's Carla Coleman.

Helen Eisner: Filing is simply turning it in, going through that process.

Rep. Grayson: Right.

Helen Eisner: Nothing substantive?

Rep. Grayson: Correct.

Helen Eisner: Okay, and when you're going through the process of preparing your financial disclosure statements, what information do you review?

Rep. Grayson: Information about the previous disclosure to make sure that I've carried over information properly that existed that did involve, for instance, any trades or investment activity during the year, or during the period in question. Then in addition to that records of investment activities during the period in question. I'm saying period in question because you're referring both to the annual report and the 30-day report. Correct?

Helen Eisner:

Yes.

Rep. Grayson:

So that's the answer to your question. I look at the previous activities, carry over what needs to be carried over, then look at the current periods of activity as well.

Helen Eisner:

Okay, do you look at ... You talked about transaction reports. Do you look at bank statements?

Rep. Grayson:

The answer to your question is, I do when it's necessary. I have a general sense of what's in the bank accounts at any given time. I don't always need to look at the bank accounts. That's not necessary for the periodic transaction reports. That doesn't involve bank accounts. For the annual reports, I do that as I believe necessary. Typically it's a relatively small part of the disclosure.

Helen Eisner:

Okay, and when you say, "In the situations where you would look at bank accounts, bank statements," how do you access those?

Rep. Grayson:

I ask Carla to give them to me.

Helen Eisner:

Representative Grayson Congressional Office Manager and Business Director ("Office Manager") has access to those materials?

Rep. Grayson:

Yes.

Helen Eisner:

Through what means?

Rep. Grayson:

She keeps the files. When you're talking about those kinds of files, she keeps those kinds of files.

Helen Eisner:

When she's accessing them these are paper statements, are they online statements?

Rep. Grayson:

I don't know, she just gives them to me.

Helen Eisner:

Do you have access to them if you want them? Do you have to go through Office Manager?

Rep. Grayson:

I have to go through Carla.

Helen Eisner:

If you have a bank account, you wanted to see what the current balance was in that bank account. Would you go through Office Manager?

Rep. Grayson:

Yes.

Helen Eisner: Okay, are these electronic accounts? Some of them I guess would be maintained through their online websites where you can look at statements, you can look at information about the accounts?

Rep. Grayson: I'm going to try ... There was a whole bunch of questions there. I'm going to try to answer the thrust of what you're asking. The answer is I don't know because I don't do it.

Helen Eisner: Right. Whenever you want to look at a bank statement you would go through Office Manager?

Rep. Grayson: Correct.

Helen Eisner: What about tax statements, and I'm talking about annual reports. Do you have access to those?

Rep. Grayson: I have access to those through Carla. When you're talking about tax statements

I'm not sure what you mean. Do you mean my tax returns?

Helen Eisner: Tax returns, any filing that would be related to your annual financial disclosures.

Rep. Grayson: I would ask Carla for that.

Helen Eisner: Why does Office Manager maintain all these files?

Rep. Grayson: It's part of her responsibilities as someone who works for the fund...

Helen Eisner: Okay, let me make sure I understand this; someone who works for the fund-

Rep. Grayson: She works one-day a week for the fund.

Helen Eisner: If these are personal tax statements, your annual filings, your annual return, Office Manager director maintains those as well?

Rep. Grayson: Yes, because they're intertwined. The fund is an investment partnership and the partnership is structured in such a way in that the investment information flows through to the investors. You couldn't do one without the other. It wouldn't make any sense. You'd end up with something that wasn't functional.

Helen Eisner: How long has Office Manager maintained these records?

Rep. Grayson: For as long as we've worked together.

Helen Eisner: Okay. Do you have access to bank statements for family members of yours?

Rep. Grayson: I don't think that my family members have any bank statements.

Helen Eisner: For your children, if they have financial records?

Rep. Grayson: I was partially in charge of that.

Helen Eisner: Did you have access to financial records for Grayson and Kubli?

Rep. Grayson: Yes.

Helen Eisner: Okay.

Rep. Grayson: Through Carla.

Helen Eisner: Through Office Manager Okay, so, again, I know we talked about this with regards to the financial statements, but just explain that as far as Office

Manager's access to records and your accessed records?

Rep. Grayson: It's what I said. I'm not sure what exactly know what you mean by that.

Helen Eisner: Well, what I mean is, as you described earlier when you wanted financial records related to your statements it seems that you asked Office Manager for these records. Is that the same in this situation when you wanted records related to the finances of Grayson and Kubli?

Rep. Grayson: Well, it's not the same, because in the case of financial disclosures there's a regular periodic requirement. There's no regular periodic requirement that corresponds to that when we talk about law firm billings

Helen Eisner: Okay. So, it's not the same in the time period when you might access these records, but if at some point during the time period when Grayson and Kubli was in existence, if you wanted to access financial records, how would you access them?

Rep. Grayson: I don't remember that happening. I don't know what you mean by accessing their records. There was no disclosure requirement. There's no periodic requirement of the kind that you were referring to. It's not analogous.

Helen Eisner: Okay. I understand that situation is not analogous. If you wanted to view the finances for this entity which you had a 100% ownership stake in and I'm not talking about any type of reporting requirement, how would you do that?

Rep. Grayson: I don't think we did that. I mean, if you're saying did I want to see a profit and loss statement? Or if I wanted to see a balance sheet. What I would do? I don't recall ever doing that for the law firm.

Helen Eisner: Were you aware of the profits for the law firm?

Rep. Grayson: Only when they filed their taxes each year.

Helen Eisner: Okay. When you filed your taxes, how would you access information so that you could understand the profits of the law firm?

Rep. Grayson: Well in that case....

Brett Kappel: I believe that's an LLC.

Rep. Grayson: If that's an LLC then I would likely in that entity be a member.

Helen Eisner: I've see Grayson Fund be referred to sort of collectively of all these entities as Grayson Fund. Is that accurate? If I said Grayson Fund would you say collectively those are those entities, or you're referring to a specific legal entity when you say Grayson Fund?

Rep. Grayson: It depends on the circumstances. I don't think I can answer that generally.

Helen Eisner: I'm just asking sort of as clarification for my next question, which is who are the employees since inception of the Grayson Fund?

Rep. Grayson: If I recall correctly, Carla Coleman's an employee for one day a week. I don't know which of those legal entities employ's her. I think Todd Jurkowski was a full-time employee of the fund during the period before I was re-elected to Congress. I don't recall any other employees. I can confirm to you I have never been an employee of any of these entities.

Helen Eisner: Okay. Who's David Keith?

Rep. Grayson: David Keith is someone who works part-time for the Fund the way that Carla does.

Helen Eisner: Okay. How long has he held that part-time role?

Rep. Grayson: Probably more than a year.

Helen Eisner: What are his responsibilities?

Rep. Grayson: He's involved in situations where there might be somebody who's interested in investing in the fund.

Helen Eisner: How does he get information about individuals who might be interested in investing in the fund?

Rep. Grayson: From Carla.

Helen Eisner: How does Office Manager get that information?

Rep. Grayson: It hasn't happened recently, but from time to time someone might express an interest in investing in the fund who's a personal friend since this is a friends and family fund, and in that case they either make that known to Carla or I make that known to Carla. Then in that kind of circumstance either ... Depending on the time-frame we're talking about, either Todd would follow up, or Carla would follow up, or David would follow up.
